

Living together in harmony

“So powerful is the light of unity that it can illuminate the whole earth.” —Bahá'u'lláh

Bahá'u'lláh teaches us that unity is like a light that can illuminate all the world.

This means that when we try hard to get along with others and to work together with them like true friends, it is like a joyful light that shines upon everyone around.

Draw a group of people who disagree and argue with each other. How do they feel? How do other people around them feel?	Draw the same group of people setting aside their differences and getting along. How do they feel now? How do others around them feel?

So _____ is the _____
of unity that it can _____ the whole _____.
